VOLUME 32
VALHALLA
ESTABLISHED 1970

NORTHEAST HEALTH SCIENCE MAGNET HIGH SCHOOL

MACON, GEORGIA 31211

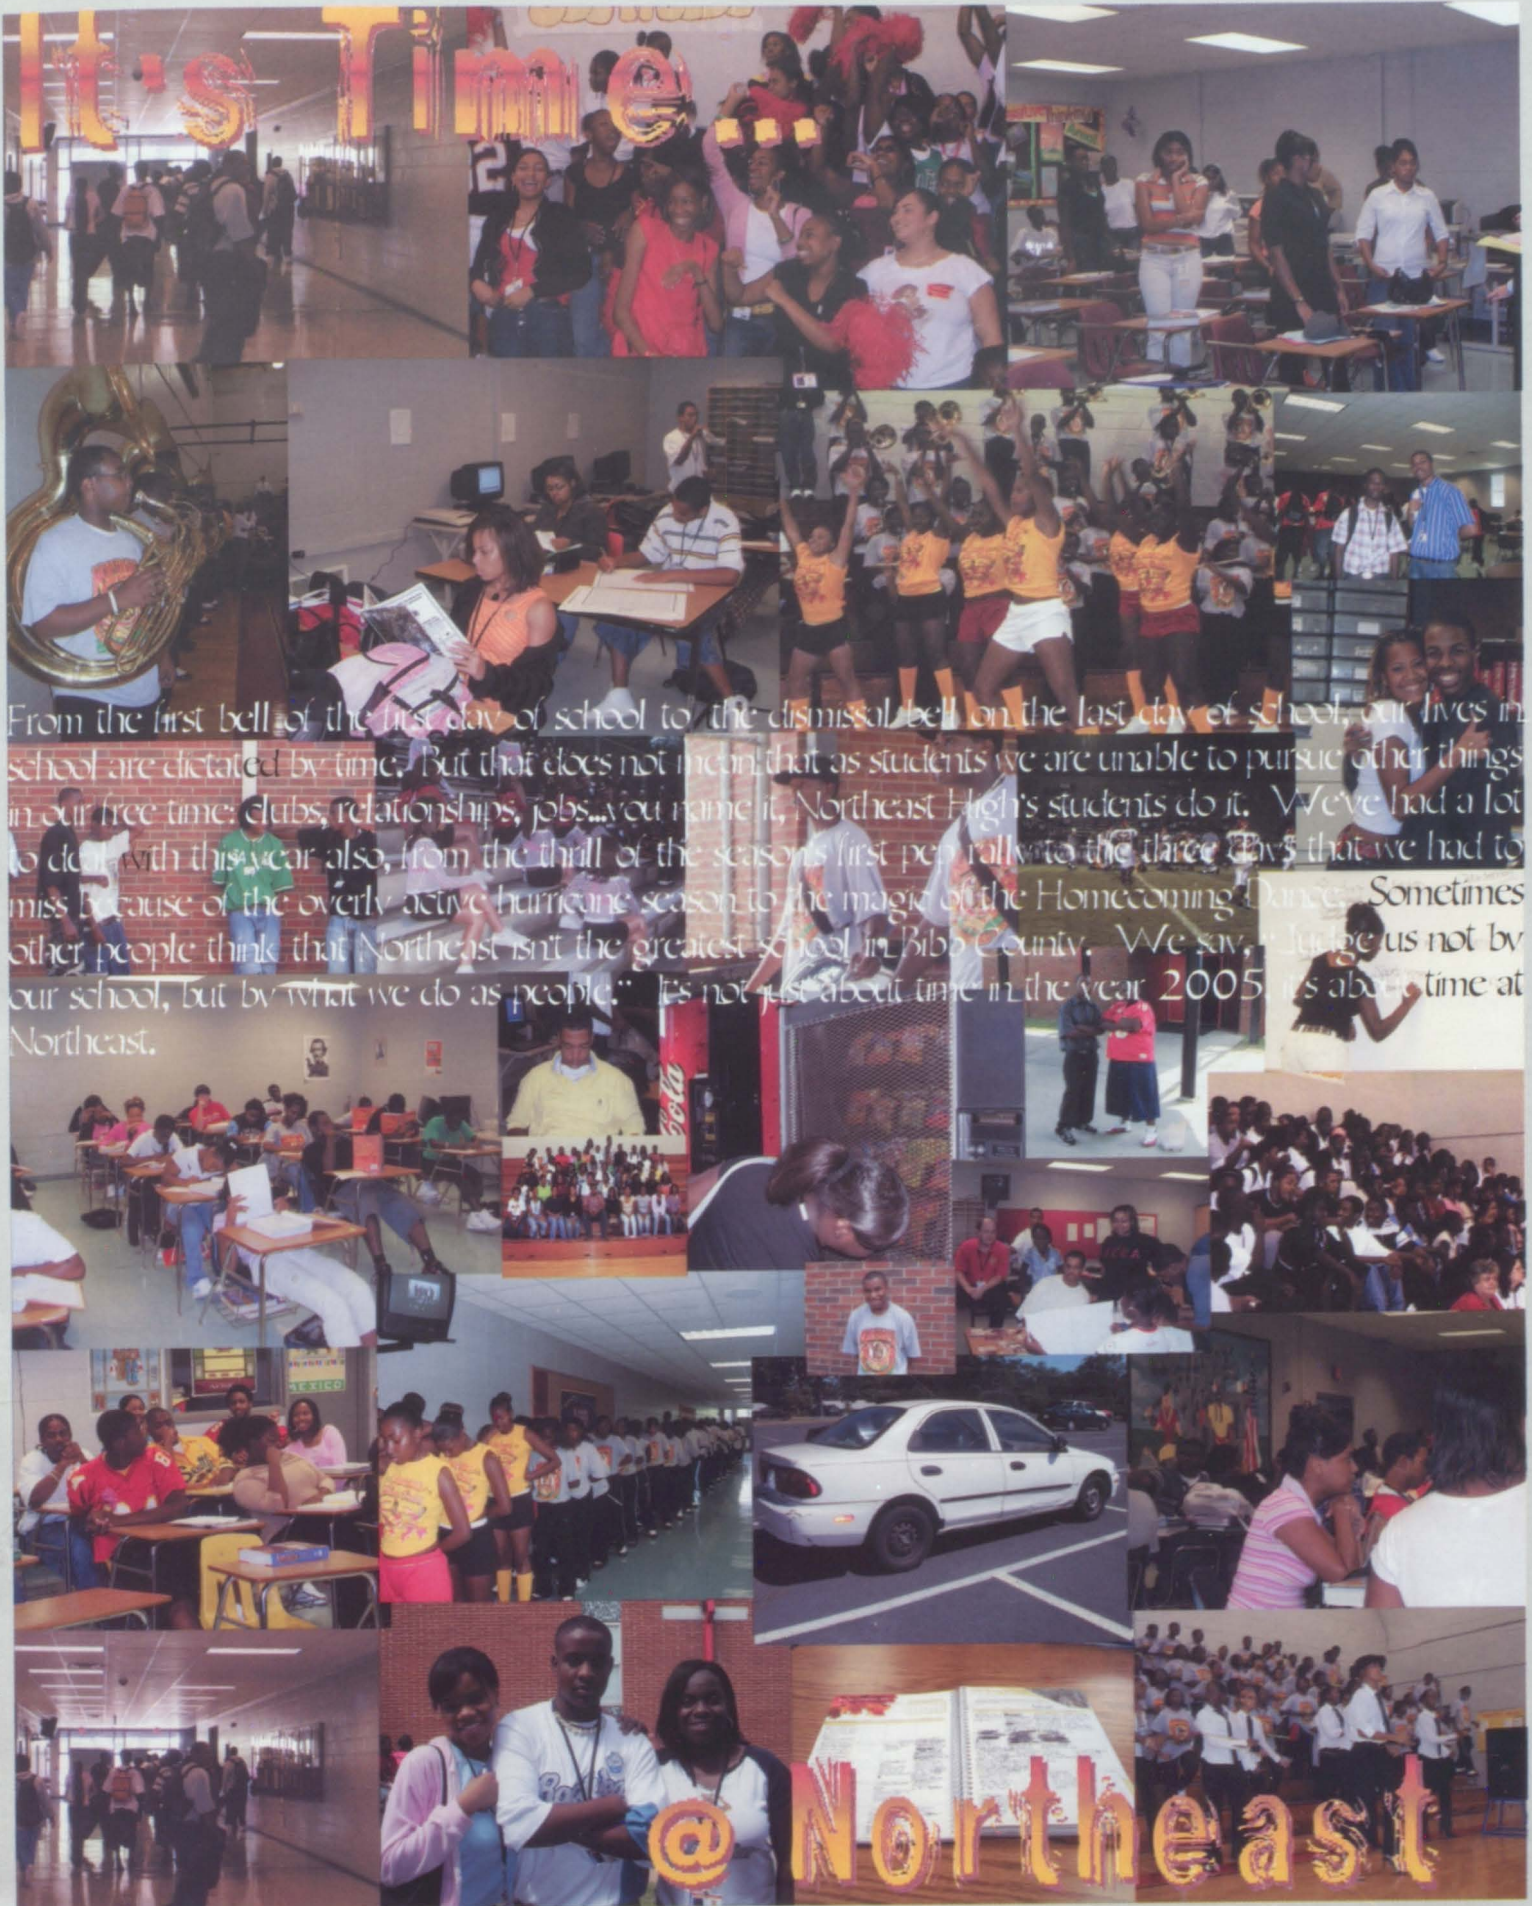

What influences the course and power of events that shape the course of our lives and the power of the events in it? Time, of course, is all of these things and more. Think about it for a second (or a minute, or an hour).

It determines what we are allowed to do.
 It forces us to make decisions that can challenge us as well as shape us.
 It dictates the limit of all of our experiences.
 It performs as an obstacle to our goals and achievements.
 It acts as a friend to the quality of our lives.

This yearbook is composed of the elements of time, of the 2004-2005 school year at Northeast High School. But more than that, it is composed of deadlines, of the efforts of its staff to effectively capture what this school year, of what the elements of this year were all about. We hope that you enjoy perusing this 32nd volume of Valhalla: It's About Time.

Quintera Gantt showed how capris ranged in style. The lacing in the jeans displayed her legs, a real innovation in style that was trendy this year.

Nevley Duhart modeled how skirts really accentuate her shape. They say that skirts make the girl, but Nevley makes this skirt.

Shelanda Jones displayed how some students chose to be their own person. She broke the tradition, and wore white after Labor Day. Always be yourself.

Touch OF GLASS

Sharonda Brooks showed off a variation of high heels using laces to accent her calves. Sandals that tie up the leg were very popular because they were inexpensive and stylish.

Keshia Watson and Brittanie Magee showed how pink was a very popular color last spring, complimenting the annual Cherry Blossom Season. Go girls!!!!

Carlton Brown wore of a pair of the number 12 Jordans, while Keshia Watson contrasted him, and relaxed while others read her pink, exotic newspaper pumps.

The classic white Air Force Ones were very popular and famous among a lot of the students. They were worn commonly with jeans and a white tee. Yep, in my white tee!!

Mid Air Force Ones were very popular throughout the school. Chuck Taylors with stylish colors were also a trend for the 2004-2005 school year.

Quintera Gantt and Crystal Palmer, both seniors, portrayed how different pumps were worn that ranged in style and color, even the loud ones. Everyone knew when they were coming.

Belt Buckles

Belt buckles jumped from the ordinary hook-and-clasp types to making really BIG statements this year, from people's names to nicknames, from Western attire to American patriotism. The larger, more simple buckles were popular among boys, while girls preferred the decorated buckles. Belts had always been varied, from woven belts to gold hoop belts, but then the buckles caught up with them. They were hard to miss as you walked through the halls.

Hair With Flair

Hair ranged in color and length for girls. The colors changed from blonde to gold, from streaked brown to jet black. The length ranged from down the back to above the ear. This showed the different personalities of the girls here. Some girls let their physical appearance describe them, and others just let their character describe them. The boys' styles ranged from braids to dreads to afros. Some of the boys had hair longer than the girls. Now, that's a shame!!!

 WHO WILL TAKE THE PRIZE NEXT YEAR ?

RAIDER

The students at Northeast High love their cars. It's their means of transportation and popularity. A nice car is easily noticed and easily adored. These raiders take pride in their rides. The cars that you see on this page represent each owner, for everyone knows that a car is an extension of oneself.

Juniors love to show off their cars. Most teenagers don't have the luxury of owning a car until their senior year or after graduation. Twin here is one of the lucky ones.

In the past year, gas prices have risen unspeakable prices. In order to get to where you need to be, you must bite the bullet and pay the money. Here are the best places to buy gas:

- $ Sams
- $ Kroger
- $ Conoco
- $ Flash Foods

Veronica proudly sits on top of her car to show that only she has that privilege and no other.

Nigel assumes the position as he gets ready to leave for home after a hard day's work. The expression on his face says, "another day gone, another year to go."

RIDES

There is one thing about Mike that distinguishes him from all of the Northeast Riders. He brings Sasha along with him.

Cassandra's car shines brightly in the Northeast parking lot. Maybe a little too much car wax was used here.

Never forget your friends. If they need a ride, offer them one. Roderica and Anquonette show that true friends don't leave each other in the dust.

Davia goes the extra mile with her prize possession. She wears dark colors to complement the color of her car.

Let's Keep Rolling People!!!

Systems

Car stereo systems are important during this day and age. When most teenagers get their first car or a new car, they want to make sure that everything is up to date.

They go to places like:

- ◆ Smiley's Flee Market
- ◆ Ken's Stereo Radio Junction
- ◆ Rex
- ◆ Radio Shack

Here are a few well known brands:

- ◆ Pioneer
- ◆ Kenwood
- ◆ Sony
- ◆ Panasonic
- ◆ Toshiba
- ◆ RCA
- ◆ Alpine
- ◆ AIWA

Hold it down! Don't cruise the lot with your system blastin'. You'll get a citation from CP

These are the car stereos of two of your fellow classmates. Can you tell whose car contains these stereos?

Write who you think these CD players belong to here:

These two CD players are some of the newer models and some play mp3s. I wonder how we'll listen to music in twenty years...

Showcase

Everyone likes to show off their ride....

Quinterra likes to match her car too. She proudly stands next to her white car while wearing a white tee.

Willie Studymine is proud of his rims. He says the car's not bad either.

Here we see Shadasia posing with her car... wait a minute! She can't drive! Isn't she the one who... Oh yeah. We weren't going to talk about that.

Looks pretty friendly, huh? Seriously folks, there's nothing worse than getting a ticket in the school lot where everyone can see...

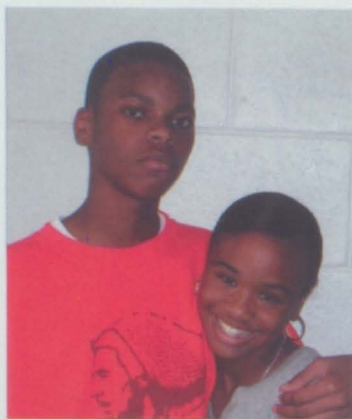

Make and model don't matter too much. We're just happy to have wheels. Selita sure is.

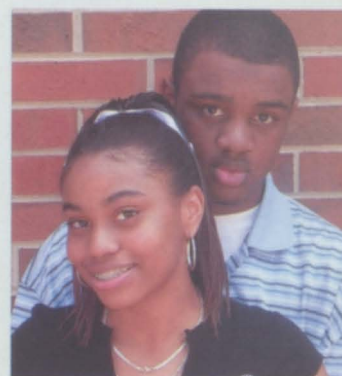

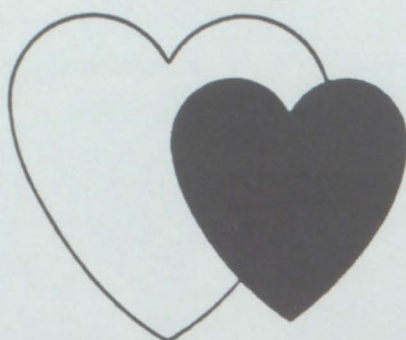

Driving is a privilege. For those who can't, there's always "The Cheese".

Brandon & Kayla

Relationships are a major part of a person's life. A lot of people find love in high school, also known as "High School Sweethearts." Will true love take its toll when they're separated? If it does, it's meant to be.

2004-2005

Darius & Carla

Chris & Jessica

Relationships in high school mean a lot more than the person you take to the Homecoming Dance or Prom, it doesn't just mean the person you hang out with on Saturday nights. It means the person that you share your thoughts with, the person that has a shoulder when you need to cry, the person who knows you're not okay even when you say you are.

Chivas & Teraneshia

Sometimes high school relationships can last a lifetime. Sometimes they only last until graduation. Sometimes they last only a few weeks or a few months. If high school teaches us lessons about life, then the love that we experience in high school can help us understand our futures.

FRIENDSHIPS

We are friends and we are happy we are about to graduate.

At Northeast High there are friends who laugh, share, and experience difficult things together. There is nothing that can keep good friends apart from one another.

We still can have fun.

A good friend is someone who tells you the truth, not one who will lie. Being able to say they're sorry when they are wrong. Someone who does not break up relationships, but builds them.

Friends just acting crazy.

A friend is able to put a smile on your face, when you know everything is not going right; one whom you can tell everything, and you are not afraid that they will tell someone else.

crazy crowd of friends

A friend's specialty is consoling, encouraging, enjoyment, and keeping confidential information to themselves, when you confide in them.

sisterly love

Friends in the early years and now.

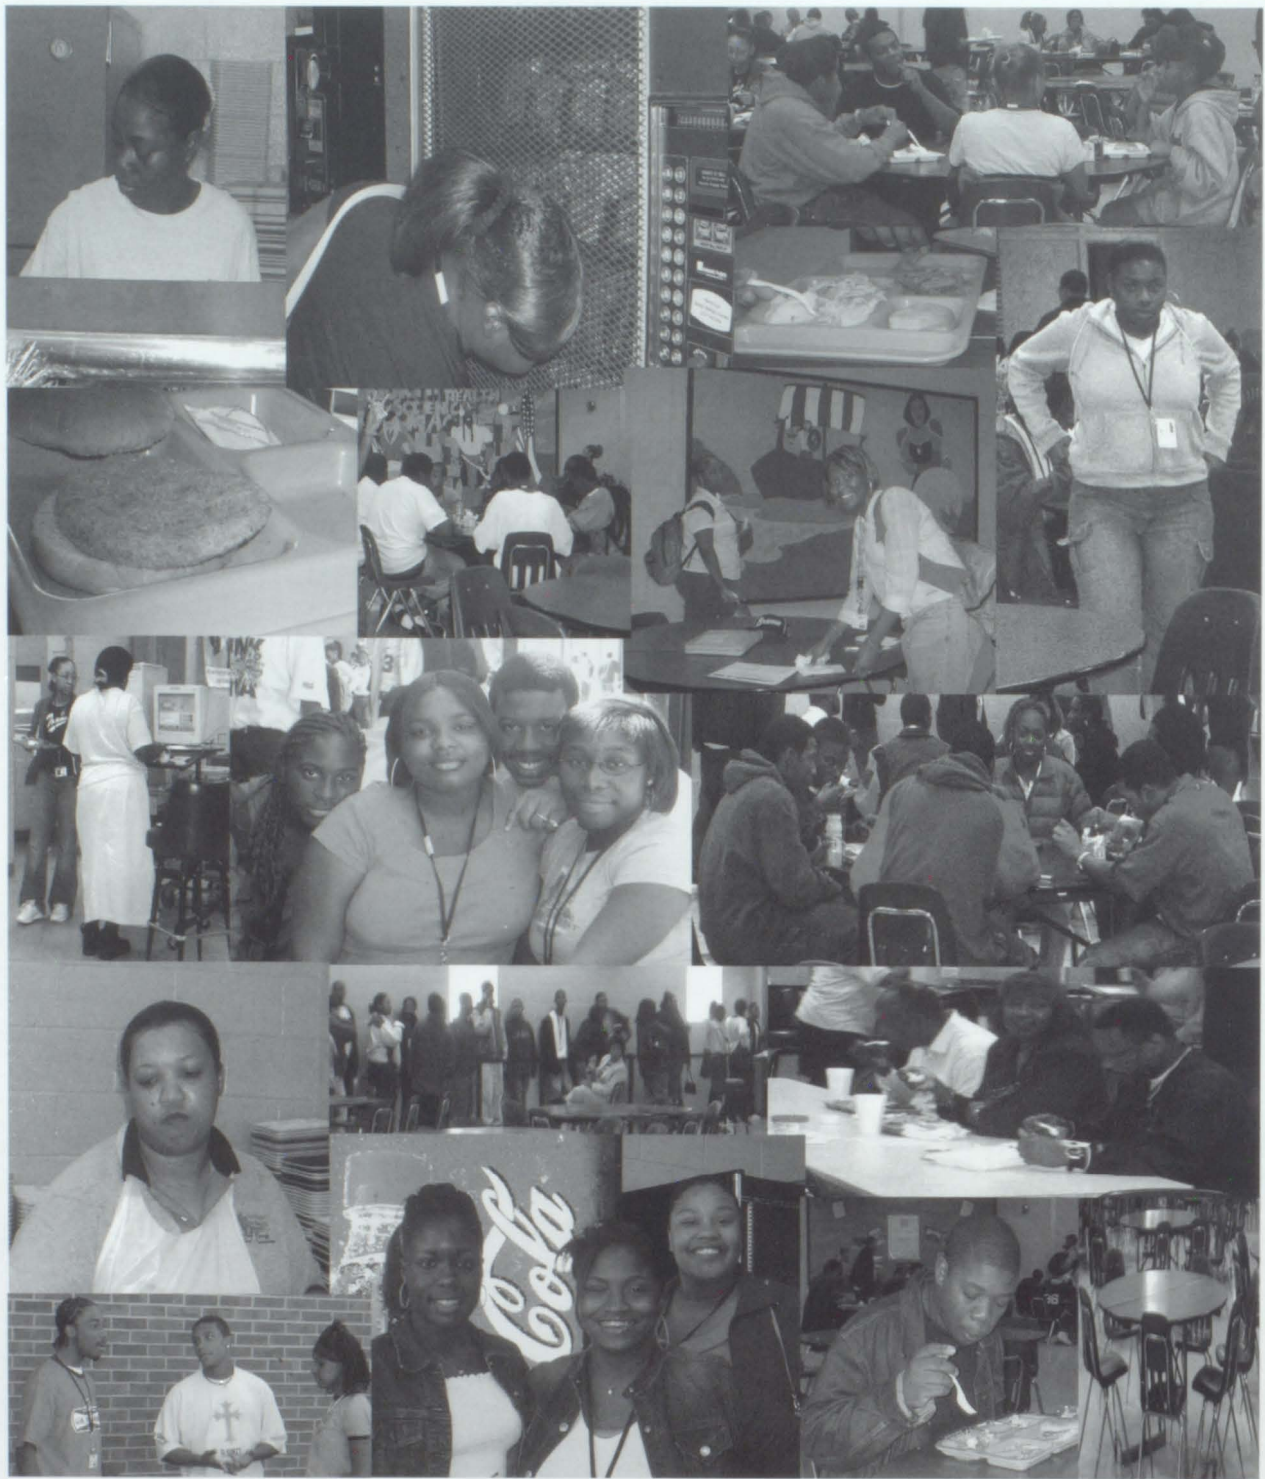

If your friend has all these characteristics and then some, you don't just have a good friend, you have a great friend. For those who don't have the courage to allow someone to get too close because of a bad past experience, someday you will conquer this obstacle. You'll find one near by. You can probably find one in a class, in your neighborhood, at your job, and even when you least expect it. It's always time to make new friends.

friendly bunch

Hurricane Season 2004

Season's heightened activity yields four storms that lash Florida, Georgia

Power outages, blocked roads, and three additional days subtracted from the holiday seasons: The effects of Hurricanes Charley, Frances, Ivan, and Jeanne were felt throughout Middle Georgia - for months after they lasted. Yet the region only received a small portion of the winds, rain, and damage that struck Florida from the three combined storms.

Of the four hurricanes of September 2004, Hurricane Charley was the only one to miss Georgia. Charley entered Florida with winds of 111 mph, which fell to 86 mph as it passed over the peninsula. It was still a category one hurricane when it made landfall in South Carolina, and later dissipated near Canada.

(l.) Hurricane Charley when it made U.S. landfall in Florida on Friday, August 13th. Charley devastated Florida with power outages to more than 2 million people and millions in damage, but only dumped several inches of rain on Middle Georgia.

Then there was Ivan, who was a category 5 storm at its peak on September 9th. It passed over Grenada and Cuba, moving slowly as it weakened to a Category 3 storm when it made U.S. landfall in Alabama. It launched rain upon Central Georgia, unlike its sister Jeanne.

Jeanne formed on September 13th, and immediately wreaked havoc upon the islands of the Caribbean. It made landfall on September 26th in Florida, with winds at speeds of 120 mph. Then it attacked Georgia, pouring rains and howling winds upon Central Georgia to close schools on September 27th.

(below) Into the eye of the storm: Hurricane Frances's eye made U.S. landfall on September 5th, with winds of 105 mph near Sewall's Point in Florida.

Hurricane Frances was the next big storm of the season, charging into Florida on September 5th with winds of 105 mph after pounding the Bahamas with 140 mph winds. It passed over the Florida peninsula quickly, and on the 6th made a second landfall near St. Mark's, Florida with 65 mph winds.

Even though Frances was weak, she still packed a punch. It dumped as much as 15 inches of rain in some areas as it weakened into a tropical depression while moving over Georgia. For Bibb County, this resulted in schools being closed for September 7th and 8th due to power outages and blocked roads.

Community Activities:

Bevy of community service projects demonstrates Northeast's involvement with East Macon community

What would a school year be without pep rallies, football games, and community-oriented activities? Like the holidays without festivities: Boring and dull.

That's why Northeast's community service clubs, including Beta Club, TAPS, and the Student Government Association, target segments of the community that have less-than-fortunate holidays.

The annual canned food drive was sponsored by Beta Club and Student Government. It was conducted from November 1st to November 19th and raised 200 cans for the needy. The cans were delivered to the homeless shelter on November 19th.

(above and left) JROTC cadets delivered turkey baskets to the community on November 19th to provide Thanksgiving dinners for the needy.

TAPS took the lead in community projects for the holiday season. Concurrent with the canned food drive, TAPS sponsored a coat drive that yielded coats for the homeless shelter. For Christmas, TAPS and Beta Club visited Eastview Nursing Home to sing carols to the elderly folks there. Beta Club also prepared candy cane calendars for the patients at the Children's Hospital to count down the days until Christmas.

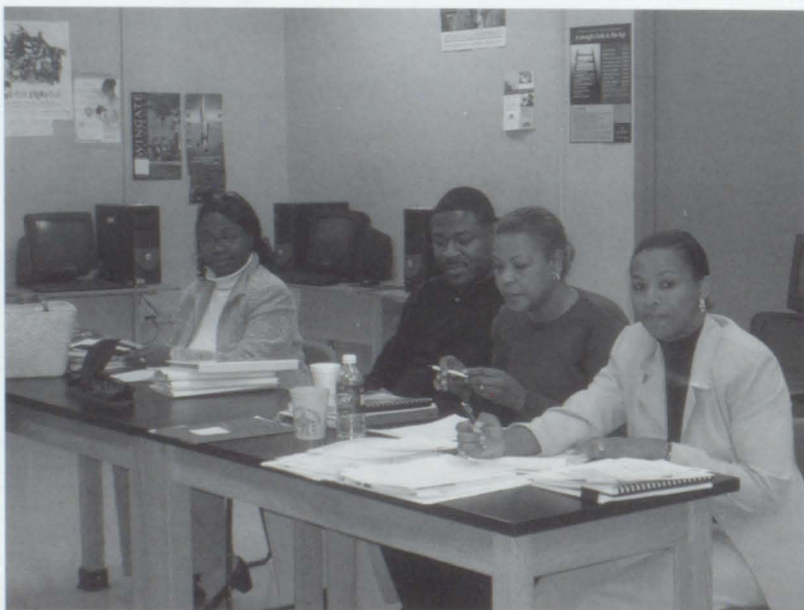

(left and below) High Schools That Work committee members meet with students during the January inspection of Northeast High School. From January 20th to 21st, Northeast graciously hosted the HSTW committee, which evaluated the school for academic and environmental excellence.

Northeast also hosted two groups of teacher-student evaluation committees: Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS) and High Schools That Work (HSTW). This was attributed to Northeast's failure to attain the federally-mandated Annual Yearly Progress in students' ability to read math and remain in high school. The visitors came late in the school year, but NEHS was still able to put on quite a show for the guests.

SPIRIT WEEK 2004!!!

Spirit Week is the most exciting week of the entire school year. This week is a week full of surprises, fun, and breaking the rules of dress code. This is not a week for the laid back or calm-hearted. This is a week for the wild and crazy. Which category do you fall in? Well, let's see!

Athletic Day

Monday is Athletic Day. This is the day when you can see most of the students wearing their favorite throwback jerseys, caps, and sportsbands. Basketball and football jerseys are the main jerseys worn on this day. Let's see what basketball and football teams are everyone's favorite.

As you can see, Johnathan and Lynnecia are fans of the Orlando Magic basketball team.

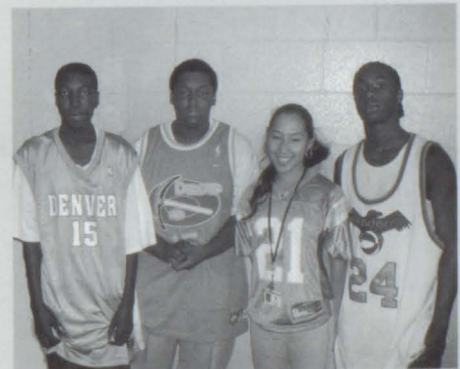

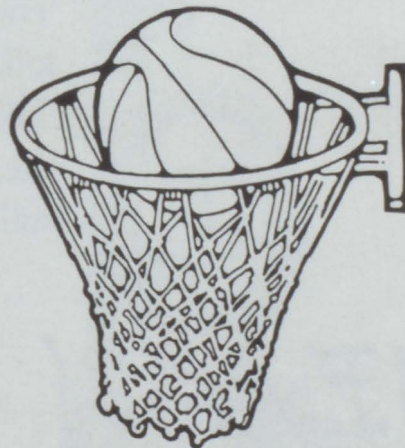

You can easily tell that Darius, Nathan, Chris are fans of Atlanta Falcons' Michael Vick.

Teatra and Kandice may share the same views on some things, but when it comes to basketball, maybe they don't see eye to eye.

Addie and Chantel may be from Macon, but their loyalty remains with the Atlanta Hawks.

These friends all represent different teams. Do they sit together at the games?

TACKY PEOPLE!!!

Tuesday is Tacky Day. This is the day when you can't get penalized for being out of dress code or ridiculed about how you dress. If you are a tacky person, well Tuesday is your day to shine and be defined. So strut your stuff in every Northeast hall way because your clothes will show that you are simply stylin'.

DO'S FOR TACKY DAY

- .. Wear mis-matched clothes
- .. Put in hear pieces that don't match
- .. Wear your clothes either ridiculously big or tight
- .. Put on layers of clothes when it's not even cold
- .. Remain out of dress code

There's nothing to it, but to do it
Come with crusted knees if you feel the need to be unclean.

DON'TS FOR TACKY DAY

- .. Wear the same shoes
- .. Comb your hair
- .. Tuck your shirt in
- .. Wash your face
- .. Dress neat

Hair real tacky, clothes real tacky, knees real tacky, everything tacky.

This may be the tackiest class. They all stand proud of their outgoing spirits.

These girls are dressed to kill...literally! Kendra, Tabitha, and Kristah may be dressed horribly, but they can still put in a good pose.

YEAH! YEAH! YEAH!

ROWDY RAIDERS!!

Western Day is of course on Wednesday. Wednesday is our day to be Clint Eastwood, Billy The Kid, Annie Oakley, and Sluefoot Sue. Some are dressed ready to go to the Saloon, ride a horse, and to rob a bank. We won't worry about that though, because at Northeast we have WILD AND ROWDY RAIDERS!!!

Dexter is one of those quiet, smooth cowboys that no one dares to bother.

Indians were once thought to be inferior beings. This little indian is making sure that stereotype does not apply to him.

Is Brittani going for a book or is she about to pull out her pistol?

In the wild west, you can always find a kind-hearted gal.

It's high noon and it's time for some grub. These cowgirls prefer to make all the cowboys fall off their horses.

RED, BLACK, & SOUL!!

Thursday is our beloved 70's Day. This is the day when we step harder than ROTC, strut harder than the Ebony Dancers, and let those jive turkeys know that Northeast is the place to go.

Xavian & Willie are Northeast's Pimps of the Year. On Thursday, their presence was known where ever they went.

This is Ervin the Swirvin' and the Shiny Pimp.

This is Northeast's Playa of the Year. He has the cane of pain and the hat of all that.

These two soul sistas will survive the rest of their years at Northeast High.

This is 70's Day's Fabulous 5. "We pimp the pimps and we break all the wimps."

Let's go down the SOUL TRAIN LINE!! These two dancers know how to work it out!

IT'S TIME!!

Friday is the day when spirits fly high at Northeast. This is the day that we are athletic, rowdy, wild, and in style. This is the day where the quiet people speak. This is when the unattentive students listen. This the day when the teacher's pets are let out of the cage and the whole Lasseter Gym is in rage. This day is...SPIRIT DAY!!!

The drum majors are leading it all. The Magnificent Three are stepping and have the attention of all present.

The sophomores are celebrating their victory of raising the most money for the cheerleaders.

Today is not the day to be a health nut. This is the day to show that you don't give a what.

The cymbalists dance to the beat, and groove with their fellow band members.

Moffet has a BOLD fashion statement.

Sanquentta and Shaqualyn feel the spirit. They ripped their shirts and made them into fashionable items.

Homecoming 2004

Homecoming is traditionally the celebration of the team returning to their home field. This celebration has always been accompanied by a dance and a week of festivities, known as "Spirit Week."

Recent Homecomings have broken tradition since games are scheduled to alternate home and away games. This year's dance was exciting to all that came. The climax of the whole night is the crowning of the Homecoming Court.

The night was very magical for all those who were crowned.

...To Educate

Administration

Our school would not function without our administrative team. The administrative team handles everything behind the scenes so that the teachers and the students can focus on our education. They also enforce our school dress code and other rules and regulations. Whenever there is a problem, you can bet that they will do all that they can within their power to assist students and faculty members.

Mrs. Ella S. Carter
Principal

Mrs. Carter has really made an impact on Northeast High School throughout the past four years. She has made it her personal mission to encourage the students to reach for higher heights, raise the bar, and achieve the unachievable. She continuously presses buttons of hope to key the right formula into our minds giving an output of success.

English

Mrs. Erma Stevens
Head Of Department

Gerunds, antecedents, hyperboles, implied metaphors... With two Advanced Placement courses and four honor courses, students of English consistently learn more than composition and proper grammar. The Drama Club, Yearbook, and multiple award-winning Salmagundi are renowned for their consistent production of excellence. The myriad of works that students in the English Department produce frequently take top prize in various competitions, including the Optimist Club Oratorical Contest.

Math

Ms. Gloria Brooks
Head Of Department

Very few students at Northeast will argue that math is one of the hardest subjects we have to study. The Math department offers Advance Placement Calculus in addition to demanding subjects such as Analysis/Trigonometry and Euclidean Geometry. Algebra and Geometry are offered also. Each variation of math contributes to the ever-long learning cycle. Math may be difficult, but in order to be successful in most careers, we must be willing to put in the hours to make the grade.

Science

Mrs. Eva McElroy
Head Of Department

Wouldn't you like to know what causes things to develop and grow? At Northeast, your questions can be answered and your mind can engulf all of the science that it can. Our science department consists of Biology, Anatomy, Chemistry, and Physical Science. Biology is the study of living matter. In our Biology classes, you can learn about the life cycle of plants and animals. Anatomy is the study of the human body. In our anatomy classes, you can dissect starfish, frogs, and pigs to compare their vital organs to our own. Chemistry is the science of interactions between matter and energy.

Who were the two generals who negotiated the surrender at Appomattox Court House on April 9, 1865? If you think history is a drag then you haven't been taking history at Northeast High School. The Social Studies Department has an Advanced Placement U.S. History course in addition to its four-honors/gifted classes, challenging students to the most of their abilities. Putting into practice some of the principles of American Government, the Student Government Association links together the student and faculty of Northeast High School to formulate innovations throughout the school year and involve the student body more closely with their school.

Our Vocational department serves students who want to get a jump-start on a career. Health-Occupations is the heart of our magnet program and prepares students for the health care industry. Unique opportunities include shadowing and interning with health care professionals. In Web Design and Digital Media students learn web publishing, digital imaging, and professional level software. Our Horticulture students regularly win accolades for plants and arrangements they enter in competitions. Our most recent addition is Ms. Williams' Pro-Start program. Upon completion of these courses, students are American Culinary Federation certified entry-level chefs!

Health and P.E.

With the current rate of obesity in America, Health & Physical Education are just as important as any other form of education. Our bodies need to be in top physical condition. We learn in Health class how to properly manage our health and keep our bodies in top physical condition. Exercise strengthens the mind as well as the body, so P. E. is essential to our curriculum.

Teacher Favorites

Each year our Senior class chooses it's favorite students in a variety of categories, and our teachers choose the students they feel best represent our school to be Senior Superlatives. This year the Senior Superlatives decided to give something back. We chose our "Teacher Favorites," modeled after the "Senior Favorites."

Best All Around:
Ms. Cathy Denson & Mr.
Dartez Talbott

Best Smile:
Ms. Lula Williams & Mr.
Jermaine Morell

Most Respected:

EXEUNT JUNIORS

It's Time

We are the first class with four years of block scheduling, and we are the first class to survive four years under the auspicious administration of Mrs. Ella Carter (some with more than others). Our class's SAT scores brought Georgia out of 50th place to 49th, and our class has the highest rate to pass the Georgia High School Graduation Test on the first time of taking the test. We've seen two years of diminishing Internet access, two years of increasing camera surveillance, and three tropical systems. We are the largest senior class of the previous two years. We are the last class that was in high school on September 11, 2001, and we are the last class that was in high school when we won Girls Basketball Championship.

We are the Class of 2005 and we have survived

It's About Time...

It was the best of times, it was the worst of times, it was the age of wisdom, it was the age of foolishness, it was the epoch of belief, it was the epoch of incredulity, it was the season of Light, it was the season of Darkness, it was the spring of hope, it was the winter of despair, we had everything before us, we had nothing before us, we were all going direct to Heaven, we were all going direct the other way. – Charles Dickens, A Tale of Two Cities

"Time is the fire in which we burn." – Dr. Tolian Soran from Star Trek: Generations

"Time is the most valuable thing a man can spend." – Theophrastus

"Time is just something that we assign. You know, past, present, it's just all arbitrary. Most Native Americans, they don't think of time as linear; in time, out of time, I never have enough time, circular time, the Stevens wheel. All moments are happening all the time." – Robin Green and Mitchell Burgess, Northern Exposure

"Time is the coin of your life. It is the only coin you have, and only you can determine how it will be spent. Be careful lest you let other people spend it for you." – Carl Sandburg

"Half our life is spent trying to find something to do with the time we have rushed through life trying to save." – Will Rogers

"This time, like all times, is a very good one, if we but know what to do with it." – Ralph Waldo Emerson

"Nothing is a waste of time if you use the experience wisely." – Rodin [French sculptor]

EPIDEMIC OF SENIORITIS FOR SECOND

With all of the chaos portending her senior year, Stephany Glover said, "My biggest challenge is to get motivated, to fill out applications for school, basically everything that you do as a senior."

This is a clear sign of a fast-spreading disease known as "senioritis". Senioritis affects students in their final year of high school (hence the name), with a bevy of symptoms such as apathy, lethargy, and disorganization. This disease is typically caused by the stress of college applications, senior activities, standardized tests, and a restlessness to graduate.

Most seniors were anxious about one thing: the SAT. Said Jarriell Denson, "I'll get the most stressed out when I take the SAT." The SAT (Scholastic Assessment Test) is used by most colleges across the nation as a college entrance exam, leading to the anxiety of not being admitted to the college of one's choice. As Jonetta Wilder stated, "My biggest challenge would probably be scoring high on the SAT."

Terrance Bonvillain identified another major issue faced by seniors: the Georgia High School Graduation Test. The test is originally administered in the spring of the junior year, almost concurrent with the first administration of the SAT, and the required score to pass any one section of the test is 500. Some seniors, however, fail a portion or two of the test, particularly the science or social studies portions of the test.

(1.) Clarena Hoskins takes a swing at a preposterous tower of academics. Many seniors, like Clarena, tend to become frustrated by the increasingly challenging courses they take on as seniors to impress college admissions officers.

Senioritis is a contagious disease that affects the limbic system of second semester; there is no cure other than May 20th.

Another major issue confronted by seniors, such as Darnell Holland, is the pressure to improve grades that suffered neglect in previous years. Holland's plan for this year is "focusing more on academics and taking things more seriously." Sanquenetta Dinkins's biggest problem will be "trying to pass calculus."

The pressure to improve grades at the eleventh hour compounds the stress that most seniors begin to accumulate as juniors. To alleviate her troubles with math, Dinkins plans to "study harder," a wise and commendable strategy that many other seniors may also have to adopt.

ATTACKS NORTHEAST CONSECUTIVE YEAR!

Yet another contributor to acute senioritis is the burden of pre-existing responsibilities. About 99.5% of the senior class has or is seeking to acquire a job after school. After school jobs lead to scheduling conflicts between homework and paid work, not to mention chores. As Denson pointed out, "My responsibilities at home will add to my stress because it's just me and my mom at my house, so I have those responsibilities as well as my clubs."

Even teachers notice the signs of senioritis. Mrs. Erma Stevens observed that more seniors are troubled by stress and apathy "because they have more responsibility, more independence, and they are more conscientious."

(r.) Exhaustion is one of the several signs of senioritis because most seniors don't get the recommended 8 hours of sleep per night, due to homework, jobs, and other problems that cause senioritis.

STAGES OF SENIORITIS:

- 1) Being easily distracted, daydreaming in class.
- 2) Lack of interest in school work or extracurricular activities.
- 3) Lethargy, sleeplessness.
- 4) Apathetic approach to classwork, despite failure on tests and homework.
- 5) Slipping grades, failure on standardized tests (in extreme cases, ineligibility to graduate).

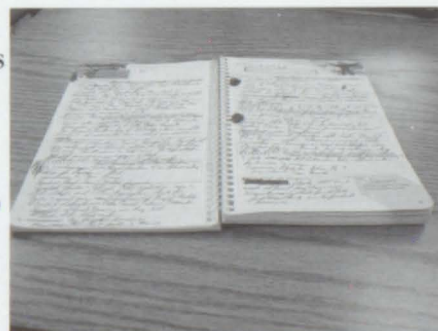

Even more challenging to seniors is avoiding the curse of extreme apathy that plagues the attitude of being a senior and almost graduating. By November, many seniors have an attitude like Glover, who says of her senior year, "I'm ready to get it over with." Bonvillain agreed, "It feels like a normal school year, but I'm ready to get out of here and graduate."

The real problems don't arise until second semester, when seniors panic as the weeks tick down to graduation. As Darnell Holland said, "I'll face the most stress in second semester, having to prepare for graduation." Mrs. Stevens also noticed it. "I think senioritis becomes the most critical around spring because that's when more seniors begin to explore different areas, different experiences, and different exposures."

the brain; the disease begins to manifest itself during the first month of senior year and is often full blown by

What can be done to avoid the curse of senioritis? You could have Jonetta Wilder's spirited attitude toward the senior year. "I feel very privileged to be a senior this year. It is a true honor and reward as a result of my hard work and persistence for many years." Or you could take Mrs. Stevens' suggestion for dealing with senioritis. "They [seniors] need advice--communicating with people who are more experienced."

Overscheduled?
(r.) Some seniors suffer from senioritis mostly because they plan too much to do, then have to do it in a limited amount of time.

Jalon Gordon

Salutatorian and Star Student. I plan to attend Cornell University to earn a B.A. in French Language in Studies and Creative Writing. In 10 years, I plan to have published at least four novels, two short story collections, and one poetry collection. I hope to have earned at least one Newberry Medal and one Academy Award for Best Original Screenplay.

Ebony Jenkins - rank 3. I plan to attend Macon State College to receive my Bachelor's Degree in Nursing. I plan to attend Wesleyan College to receive my Bachelor's Degree in Art and Atlanta Art Institute to receive my Master's Degree in Culinary Art. In 10 years I see myself working on my Master's Degree and starting my own business in Culinary. I also plan to start a family in Canada, and own my own land and house.

Jonathan Ward - rank 4. Upon Graduation, I plan to attend Macon State College and major in Respiratory Therapy, also minor in Spanish. Ten years from now, I will be a traveling respiratory therapist and have a nice family with 3 children.

Sharonda Brooks - rank 5. In the fall of 2005, I plan to attend Georgia State University to receive my Bachelors Degree in Nursing and Mortuary Science. # It's Time To...

Do you have the drive? Do you desire to be a raider or raiderette? Go out for the team. Show others how much power you possess in your whole body. Struggle your way to the top of the mountain and claim it as your own. Make the pass. Tackle that guy. Hit the ball. Run until the competitor can't. Lift weights till you're Super Man. Be that Wonder Woman on the court. Dance until your feet bleed. Step to the beat of your drum. Blow your horn until it's hard to breathe. It's the fire inside you that burns. You know what you are and you know what you will become: a true...

Raiderette Softball

This is one of the headlining sports of the school year. Ladies first. This is the Northeast High School Softball Team. On hot July afternoons, these raiderettes come from their homes and leave the rest of their summer break behind and get down to business. These girls put in the hours.

Top: Amber Johnson, Nichelle'Le Carrington, Andriea Hoskins, Cassandra Davis, Sharonda Brooks, Tamera Thomas, Niteria Paterson, Adrienne Dean

Bottom: Shantera Davis, Teaatra Womble, Brittany Miller, Ashley Warren, Shelanda Jones, Christina Emory, Clarena Hoskins

It can get frustrating when you want to go out and make a difference in the game.

The game is about to begin. There is always a team meeting and prayer before all of the games. At this time, suggestions are made and positions are announced.

Warm up pitches come in handy when the game is about to start. You have to get the wind up just right.

This practice before the game is critical. It helps when it comes to potential ground balls. Technique is important.

2004 - 2005

This is the last year for these five Raiderettes. One sunny morning in July 2001 was the beginning. That hot and tiresome day on October 5, 2004 was the end. These girls have been through it all. During their years of participation, blood has been shed, tears have been cried, arguments have arisen, disappointment has occurred, and joy was found. These girls have been in situations of playing new positions without any experience. These girls have even played while injured. The softball team may not get as much recognition as other sports do, but these girls deserve all the applause. Pain, devastation, love, and happiness are the only words that can describe their high school softball years.

CHEER YOUR

This is the Northeast High School Cheerleading Squad. They are the young women that you see at the major games of the school year. They are there to help their school mates feel that they have the power to get through the quarter when it seems like the game is all over. Some people may think that cheerleading is not a sport. It's not. It's an art. Only special people can do what these girls do. Not many people can tumble, lift a girl on her shoulders, fly in the air, or scream from the top of their lungs with feeling. These girls are artists and their work is magnificent.

Tiera Ford, Shalandria Walker, Shalonda Battle, Shunquinese Dennis, JaVesha Willis, Shadasia Lewis, Amberia Robertson, Angelica Cooper, Chelsea Collier, Jessica Hughes, Titana Simmons, Addie Rainey-Whitby, Gabrielle Hill, Jessica Evans(co-captain), and Artisia Flores(co-captain)

HEART OUT!!!

The Varsity Cheerleading Squad consists of the sophomores, juniors, and seniors. These girls are no longer new to this way of life. They have been cheering their hearts out for years at Northeast. We all know that it gets better with age. Experience is the key to mastering anything. These thirteen girls know what is and what is not appropriate when it comes to cheerleading.

WHAT ABOUT YOUR FRIENDS?

Lasting friendships are created. Anyone can remember the friend that held her up when others wouldn't. Anyone can remember that friend that wouldn't let her go or fall when it was hard to withstand all of the pressures of life.

A BASKETBALL TEAM IS A GROUP OF PEOPLE THAT COME TOGETHER TO BUILD AND SHOWCASE THEIR SKILLS. THEY WORK TOWARDS A GOAL OF BRINGING OTHER SOULS INTO THE GAME AND BONDING THEM FOR A LIFETIME. THE SEASON WAS TOUGH, BUT THE TEAM PERSERVERED. THEY ALL OVERCAME PERSONAL BATTLES AND ENHANCED THEIR PLAYING ABILITIES. THEY BUILT THEIR ENDURANCE, MOLDED THEIR BODIES, AND LEARNED NEW SKILLS.

We've reached the end of the thirty-second volume of the Valhalla. Did you contribute to the yearbook? Some of you did. We dragged you out of class to get information, we blinded you with our flashes, and we've pestered you about dipping into your wallets. Do you want to know how we contributed? We have cramps in our hands from all the writing and typing, our eyes are glazed from staring at computer screens while retouching your pictures, and our minds are fried from the pressure of deadlines. We did it all for you, and now it's time to... say good-bye until next year. Peace.

Mother Daughter Hug
 I've seen my daughter crying
 I've seen her heart broken in two
 I've seen her when she's hurting and when she's down and blue sometimes she needs someone special to give her heart a gentle tug
 But sometimes all she needs
 is a great big motherly hug
 Always here for you.

To the Graduate, No More a Child

To the graduate, no more a child,
 On whom these many years my love has shone:
 Take pleasure in the pleasure of my pride,
 However much you've managed on your own.
 Even as you dance upon your stage,
 Growing ever more endowed with grace,
 Remember that my love will never change,
 A place for you beyond all time and place.
 Do what you will within your own wide world,
 Understanding in your own wise way:
 Always know you are my field of wonder,
 The wild, star-strewn moor on which I wander,
 Even as I honor you today.

Good Luck to all
